

INTERNATIONAL BRIGADE COMMEMORATION COMMITTEE

Spanish Anti-Fascist War 1936-39

c/o 45-47 Donegall Street, Belfast, BT1 2FG

Commemorating the 70th Anniversary
of the Spanish Civil War

Saturday 16th September at 11.00am in Transport House
(102 High Street Belfast, BT1 2DL)

Second of three Public Seminars on Ireland and the Spanish Civil War 1936-39.

The People Unite Against Fascism

A Common History Seminar

Main Speakers:

Manus O'Riordan,

Executive Member for Ireland, International Brigade Memorial Trust.
with

Jimmy McDermot, Labour Historian

Discussing the local reaction to the Spanish Civil War

Also on 16th September, On behalf of the IBCC, Veteran Bob Doyle will be unveiling a plaque dedicated to The XVth International Brigade and the other volunteers who stood against Fascism in the Spanish Civil War 1936-39.

The ceremony will begin at 3.00pm in The John Hewitt Bar & Restaurant
(51 Donegall St. Belfast BT1 2FH)

Followed by the Belfast book launch of:

Brigadista An Irishman's Fight Against Fascism*, by Bob Doyle,

Notes and additional text by Harry Owens, Published by Currach Press

Social event will follow this

Organised by: The Belfast & District Trades Union Council,
The Fellowship of Messines Association,
The International Brigades Commemoration Committee.
Supported by Community Relations Council

For further information contact:
Kevin Doherty, 028 90961111; Ciaran Crossey 07759 393607
or Lynda Walker 07751951785